

STUDY OF STELLAR POPULATIONS IN M33 OB ASSOCIATIONS

N. Koleva¹, T. Veltchev¹, P. Nedialkov¹, G. Borisov²

¹*Department of Astronomy, Faculty of Physics, Sofia University*

² Institute of Astronomy, Bulgarian Academy of Sciences

Young stellar populations are investigated in 20 classical OB associations in M33, using precise UBVR photometry of the recently published Local Group Survey (Massey et al. 2005). The star formation history in the associations is reconstructed on the base of age and extinction estimates and its correlation with the spiral structure and galactocentric distance is studied.